Networking and Inter-Acting
A training course for residents

The aims of the course are to

- Explore the benefits of networking, as individuals and community / resident representatives
- Build our confidence and skills in interacting with people in networking situations
- Consider who we might network with, and how to use networking to build our influence.

PROGRAMME

9.30-10.00   Arrival and registration

10.00   Introduction to the course and one another

              What is networking and why is it important?

              Mapping the organisations and people whose decisions affect our communities

11.15   Break

11.30   The skills of networking

12.45   Lunch

1.30   Networking for influence

2.45   Break

3.00   Using and developing networks to tackle local issues

4.00   Course review

4.15   Finish

choosingchange